No credit card needed

Simply verify your student status through your school email address, and you're ready to go with $100 in credit.

More than 25 free developer products

Build your skills in trending tech including data science, artificial intelligence, machine learning, and other areas—with access to free developer products and resources.
