NOTICE: Read this if you are looking for the conventional "Issues" tab.

You-Get is a tiny command-line utility to download media contents (videos, audios, images) from the Web, in case there is no other handy way to do it.

Here's how you use `you-get` to download a video from YouTube:

$ you-get 'https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jNQXAC9IVRw' site:           YouTube title:          Me at the zoo
stream:
- itag:         43
  container:    webm
  quality:      medium size:         0.5 MiB (564215 bytes)
  # download-with: you-get --itag=43 [URL]
